Vacation in the Canary Islands

Enjoy a one bedroom timeshare in Diamond las Calas resort in Puerto del Carmen, on the island of Lanzarote, in the Canary Islands for the week of April 14 – 21, 2011. The resort is located near the heart of the popular tourist centre of Puerto del Carmen, just a short walk from the beach. $2,000 toward airfare included.

The Canary Islands are of volcanic origin, and are in the Atlantic Ocean, just off the north-western coast of Africa. They form an autonomous community of the country of Spain, and the spoken language is Castilian Spanish (English is widely spoken). The beaches, climate and natural attractions, make it a major tourist destination.

With superb beaches, safe and warm seas, excellent water sports, and year round sunshine, your Canary Island vacation will be memorable.
